

CORINNE CAMPI, ESQUIRE LLC

Family Law When Family Matters

A Practice Devoted to Family Law

Matrimonial Litigation, Mediation, Collaborative Divorce,
Licensed NJ (94), PA (95), CT(95), Qualified Mediator R. 1:40-12

302 Morris Avenue

Spring Lake, New Jersey 07762

P-732-556-0525 F-732-556-0526

corinne@ccampiesq.com

October 29, 2022

Via Email Only

Bernard Segebade

8 Lionel Street

Clark, New Jersey 07066

RE: Segebade v Segebade

Dear Mr. Segebade:

Please be advised that I have been retained as Leslie's Family Law Attorney. I shall be filing a Divorce from Bed and Board. What that means is that Leslie is seeking what New Jersey would equate to a legal separation, but the custody and financial aspects of your case would be finalized.

I understand that you seek to re-enter my client's mother's home where my client and the children are staying. I have advised my client to change the locks. You are not a lessee. You are not an owner, and furthermore you moved out on January 28, 2022. You are not allowed back without invitation from my client. Do not enter the property without permission and prior notice. It is not your home. It is not a marital asset, and you are not a tenant.

I have also directed my client to remove exactly half of the proceeds from the sale of the Clark house and you may remove same.

I would ask that you financially maintain the status quo. Meaning you will still need to support your family through this process.

With some limited discovery, I believe we can amicably resolve your differences. With the marital home sold, it is simply a matter of dividing the remaining assets and liabilities and establishing alimony and child support.

I understand you are having difficulties with Sarah. You do see "Dude" and my client encourages you to do so, but again, you must give her prior notice, and you are not permitted on the property. You may take Dude out for your parenting time.

If you are retaining counsel, please have them communicate with me so that they can accept service on your behalf. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

CORINNE CAMPI, ESQUIRE

CC/mhm

C: Leslie Segebade (via email only)